- Discuss with Scholarships & Financial Aid office the impact of withdrawing regarding your scholarships & financial aid packages now and for the future.
  17 Canfield Administration Building, 402-472-2030
- Check with Student Accounts to ensure your account balance is paid off. This balance may be posted after you leave the institution.
  124 Canfield Administration Building, 402-472-2887
- Check with the Office of the Dean of Students to ensure you do not have outstanding judicial matters.
  106 Canfield Administration Building, 402-472-2021
- If your full-time or part-time enrollment is verified to receive discounts on your medical/car insurance or your parents’ health and auto insurance, withdrawing from classes may affect your eligibility for continued discounts.
- Update all personal contact information in MyRED.
- Complete the course withdrawal process through MyRED account. Questions contact Office of the University Registrar or your academic adviser.
- Sell back and/or return any textbooks that you purchased or rented.
- Ready to come back to the university?? Visit with the Office of Admissions to re-apply.
