YOUR FIRST SIX WEEKS AS A HUSKER CHECKLIST

WEEK ONE: January 1-7
- Explore the campus and Lincoln
- Print your class schedule
- Locate your classes
- Purchase your textbooks and supplies; make sure to check Canvas for any announcements/new information
- Make sure you get your parking pass ahead of time from Parking Services! Visit parking.unl.edu/welcome

WEEK TWO: January 8-14
- GO TO CLASS – the first day(s) are crucial
- Check out the FREE Group Fitness classes through Campus Recreation this week!
- Read and organize your syllabi – utilize a planner, your smartphone, or Google Calendar to input all pending deadlines for papers, quizzes, and tests

WEEK THREE: January 15-21
- GO TO CLASS – Enjoy MLK Day off! All UNL offices are closed Monday, January 15th
- Introduce yourself to your instructors and classmates
- Be open to making new friends and potential study partners
- Visit First-Year Experience and Transition Programs in 127 Love Library South. We offer resources and staff to assist with any issue you may have!
- Looking for ways to stay active and have fun? Sign up for intramurals at rec.unl.edu/intramural-sports

WEEK FOUR: January 22-28
- GO TO CLASS
- Prepare for any upcoming exams, quizzes, etc. Take advantage of optional study sessions or visit Resource Centers
- Remember what happens outside of the classroom is also important; balance a routine that includes academics and time for yourself
- Attend the Time Management Workshop from the Academic Success Workshop Series, Jan 23 (4 p.m.) and Jan 24 (5 p.m.) in 221 Love Library South

WEEK FIVE: Jan 29-Feb 4
- GO TO CLASS
- Prepare for any upcoming exams, quizzes, etc.
- Attend a cultural event or visit the Nebraska State Museum at Morrill Hall
- Reflect on how the first ¼ of the semester has gone so far. Are you happy with your performance? What areas could you improve? Have you been to your instructor’s office hours?
- Schedule to meet an Academic Success Coach to excel in the classroom. Schedule through MyPLAN

WEEK SIX: February 5-11
- GO TO CLASS
- Don’t beat yourself up over the potential mistakes made in your first few weeks; set new goals and milestones for reaching them
- Plan for midterms. Note if any courses have changed room assignments for the midterm exam or if you need to schedule a time at the Digital Learning Center
- Schedule an appointment with your academic advisor to plan for fall semester